John E. Cuttino Joins Gallivan, White & Boyd, P.A. Law Firm

Columbia, SC – Gallivan, White & Boyd, P.A. is pleased to announce that attorney John E. Cuttino has joined the firm as a shareholder in GWB’s Columbia, South Carolina, office. John is a veteran litigator with over 30 years of experience in the state and federal courts of South Carolina.

John has tried over 75 cases to verdict as lead counsel during his legal career and is regularly retained by insurers, self-insureds, risk management entities, corporations, and individuals. At GWB, his practice will focus on the litigation of a variety of matters including class actions, design and construction defects, toxic and mass torts, insurance coverage, tort and personal injury, intellectual property, products liability, professional negligence, and alternative dispute resolution.

John states, “I am very excited to be joining GWB. The firm has extremely talented attorneys who focus on the client’s needs first. I look forward to working with these great people in a continual effort to provide the highest level of client service and satisfaction possible.”

John is very active in the legal profession and in the community where he works and lives. John has served esteemed organizations such as DRI – The Voice of the Defense

Bar as Second Vice President, and is a member of the International Association of Defense Counsel, the National Foundation for Judicial Excellence, and the South Carolina Defense Trial Attorneys' Association. John's legal skill and commitment to the legal profession has led to an AV Rating by Martindale Hubbell, listing in Best Lawyers in America in three categories, and listing in South Carolina Super Lawyers for civil litigation. Additionally, John has served his community through organizations like the Huguenot Society of South Carolina as President, and the Columbia World Affairs Council as former Chair of the Board.

Managing Shareholder C. William McGee stated, "We are thrilled that John is joining the GWB team. He is a distinguished attorney that is respected throughout the legal profession. John's legal knowledge and skill will be a great asset to our clients and attorneys alike."
