Surety Bonds in Latin America

Industry Insights

We are excited to announce an upcoming Insuralex event titled "Surety Bonds in Latin America – Industry Insights."

Surety Bonds are the backbone for the development and execution of infrastructure projects, both private and public, in the Latin American region, and serve as an important financial tool used in various industries, including construction, government contracts, and legal proceedings.

With this in mind, this webinar will present the latest report on surety bonds prepared by the exclusive members of Insuralex in Latin America. Additionally, members of the insurance market will talk about the present and future of surety bonds and new market trends.

At our upcoming event, we will be joined by industry experts who will share their insights on these trends and provide valuable information on the current state of the surety bond insurance industry in Latin America.

We invite you to join us for this informative event and learn more about the opportunities and challenges in the surety bond market in the region.
